Empowering Your Publishing Dream

Here for You

Our roots go back to humble beginnings, importing Christian books and music into the United Kingdom from America and Canada, before selling them on a collapsible table once a week! Our passion has always been to empower people, by making great literature available that they could not easily get, and at an affordable price.

With authors constantly asking us if we would publish books, we answered the call to help them publish their books. Today we have hundreds of books published, many happy authors, and lives impacted across the world.

We put you, the author at the heart of the publishing process, and involve you throughout. It is your manuscript, your dream, coupled with our experience to make it, affordable, enjoyable & successful.

Because we value the author relationship so much, we set up a flexible publishing model, allowing authors and other publishers to use us for one or two services, or a range of publishing packages.

Our core markets remain Christian books in these categories:

- Non-fiction
- Fiction
- Children's books
- Biographies & Autobiographies
- Full color books

Live the Dream

It is estimated that at any one time, over 200 million people have an idea for a book to write and have published. Sadly, only a fraction of them will ever fulfil their dream and see their book in print.

The fact that you are even reading this booklet means you have come further than most dreamers.

- We are in your corner as you follow your dream of being a published author.
- We highly value relationship with our authors. The first conversation we have will be about you: getting to know your dream, and vision for your book.
- We offer a flexible approach, which includes payment plans [see page 4].

What our customers say...

'I am delighted to endorse Freedom Publishing. They were recommended to me by a fellow author several years ago. Their service is second to none; attention to detail impeccable. Their availability for consultation makes for a good working relationship, smooth service and an excellent result. Their cover and layout design are inspired. I highly recommend them.'

Beryl Moore, *School of the Spirit

'Working with Freedom Publishers was an absolute pleasure. The service was personal and efficient and the product delivered entirely to expectations. Most importantly it was great working with someone who knew how to handle a client 8000 miles away!'

Richard Lawton, Unzip! (South Africa)

'As a publisher David exudes a culture of excellence. I found his attention to detail very impressive, as he turned my manuscript into such an attractive and readable book. He is inspirational and encouraging, yet honest in his advice, which left me as a writer confident in his skills.'

Steve Hepden, author of *Rejection Hurts

'I worked with David on two extensive projects. Firstly the formatting and publishing off my first book Limitless and then on the creation of a manual for it to also become a course. David was endlessly patient and helpful with many aspects of this complex process. I deeply appreciated his extensive input and generous sharing of skills and wisdom. He helped me to navigate the long and winding process that lead to the for filament of both projects- I will be forever grateful.'

[1] Connect

Email us and arrange a time to speak with one of our team. We promise that this will NOT be a sales call! Tell us all about your book, how complete the manuscript is and you expect to be ready for it to be published. Ask all the questions you need so we can give you the best advice, even if it is not publishing through us.

[2] Best Solution

Before we connect, if you want to choose one of our packages on page 4, tell us which one. If there is a deadline to meet tell us as soon as possible so we can try to meet it for you. We are happy to look at draft manuscripts and these can be submitted via our website.

[3] Quotation & Publishing Plan

We will send you a formal quotation for your manuscript and confirm a timetable for each phase, (a delivery date will be established providing all our set deadlines are met.) The quotation will give you various payment options, including instalments.

[4] Contract and Manuscript

Once everything is finalized we will send a contract for you to sign and return to us. There will be an invoice sent for the first payment. You can now send the final manuscript.

[5] Marketing Plan

While we work on preparing the book for printing, you have time to plan how to launch and market your copies when they arrive in a few weeks time. Our creative team can help create images, posters, leaflets and other resources you want. If you have chosen the marketing optional extra our specialists will be contacting you to work on this together.

[6] Review & Acceptance

We send you a PDF of the book laid out for your final review, along with some tips on how to do a better review. Once you are happy and you have signed the acceptance form, it is ready for printing and to be delivered to you soon. We will have the book listed on the national database which will provide your book information to all the major bookstores, distributors and online retailers.

[7] Knock Knock!

Your copies arrive and you are now a published author! Time for the celebration party. Dreams really do become a reality!
